YOUR OLYMPIC EXPERIENCE

Passion for guests

A warm welcome awaits you. And that's a matter of attentive service at just the right moment. It's our pleasure to take care of all the little things so you can focus all your attention on your own gathering. It's our pleasure to serve you, because we want you and your guests to feel right at home.

Only outstanding is good enough

Quality and success are the keys to appreciation and pleasure. When working with other organisations you seek a perfect match – preferably a partner that will inspire you to achieve an even better result. Experience how the top quality of Hotel and Conference Centre Papendal can contribute to the success of your gathering.

Surprising, yet comfortable

A sporting environment provides energy and motivates us to greater heights. Papendal is surprisingly different and inspires top performance. And that's exactly what you need if you want to inform your guests and make them enthusiastic. Experience how vitality, sportsmanship and inspiration bring out the best in you. Live your Olympic experience.

Wishes and requirements change

Creativity is inspiring and leads to change. It's therefore essential that people and their environment can adapt continuously to meet the latest requirements. Hotel and Conference Centre Papendal gives your creativity free reign: the accommodations and the grounds are multifunctional and can always be combined in such a way that the most suitable environment is created for any imaginable gathering.
